The Dracut Scholarship Foundation is a 27 member volunteer organization whose goal is to raise money for the graduating seniors of Dracut High School. Very often, our organization draws on the skills of its members in our fundraising efforts. Applicants should be able to solicit businesses freely for donations. What particular leadership qualities or special skills can you bring to the Foundation that will help us to achieve our fundraising goals?

Thank you for your interest in the Dracut Scholarship Foundation. Applications are kept on file to fill open positions; they may not be taken in the order received if the board is looking for a specific position to fill. When an opening becomes available, you will be contacted by a member of our nominating committee to determine your level of interest at that time. Completed applications may be given to any board member or mailed to:
